

Police Reserve Academy

PROGRAM MISSION:

The Police Academy Reserve (PRA) trains students to enter into law enforcement.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:

This program is a 288 hour, nine-month long, 3 part sequence for PRA certification. These courses provide students with the foundational knowledge and skills applicable for entry into criminal justice fields to include Police Reserve positions, Community Service Officer positions and volunteer services. The course also provides a general basis of knowledge for full time employment in law enforcement fields to include Police Officer, Parole and Probation Officer and Correctional Officer. The PRA course is designed to prepare entry level workers to complete the physical fitness and firearm standards that are required by a vast majority of the law enforcement entities throughout the State of Oregon.

PROGRAM OUTCOMES:

Students who successfully complete the Criminal Justice Police Reserve Academy will:

1. Communicate effectively in the criminal justice culture: verbally, non-verbally, and in writing
2. Work effectively on both independent assignments and team efforts within the criminal justice system
3. Recognize symptoms of mental health and substance abuse issues and take appropriate action
4. Describe the importance of criminal justice occupations working with various social and economic backgrounds, races, religions and nationalities

ASSESSMENT:

This is a graded course. Students must maintain a passing average of 70% or better in all 3 course sequences to be eligible for course completion. Students must display proficiency in all Skills Based Training segments that will be graded on a Pass/Fail basis. Those who pass the exams and display proficiency in skills training will be awarded a Police Reserve Academy non-credit training certificate.
